

Keynote Address

A Century of Nursing Excellence at UCSF

Marilyn Flood, RN, MS '69, PhD came to the UCSF School of Nursing as a Master's student in 1968 and retired from the faculty in 2000. Marilyn has spent many years researching the history of nursing at UCSF. Her presentation will commemorate the Nursing Centennial by providing an overview of a century of excellence in nursing at UCSF. Complimentary copies of Marilyn's new book, Promise on Parnassus: The First Century of the UCSF School of Nursing, will be given to all NAA members.

UCSF Nursing Centennial Wall of Fame

The UCSF School of Nursing and the Nursing Alumni Association Board will commemorate the UCSF Nursing Centennial by establishing a "Wall of Fame," which will recognize 100 outstanding alumni and faculty. The Wall will be displayed at Alumni Day, at the School, and at other Centennial events. Criteria for nomination are based on the previously established Jane Norbeck Distinguished Alumni Award criteria, and are as follows:

- The nominee (who can be either living or deceased) has made significant contributions to the nursing profession and/or health care.
- He/She has demonstrated service and/or leadership that contributed to the growth and development of the UCSF School of Nursing.
- The service is/was continuous and sustained.
